MES
FBA

Improving Chinese Merger and Acquisition Market

Referring EU Experiences

Directed by : Prof. Danny Van Den Bulcke
Written by : Liu Cang (m-97-6714-7)

MBA (MES
003-
LIU
c.5

Content

Introduction

Chapter 1 Main Characters of EU Current Mergers and Acquisitions

1.1. M&A Reasons and its position in business
1.2. Strategy formulation and flexibility
1.3. Using of advisors
1.4. Post-transaction reviews
1.5. Levels of Integration

Chapter 2 M&A Regarding SOEs (State-owned Enterprises) in China

2.1. Connection between M&A and SOE reform
2.2. Mergers and acquisitions between SOEs
2.3. Merger and acquisition between COEs(Collective-Owned Enterprises), POEs (Private Owned Enterprises) and SOEs
2.4. SOE M&As involving foreign-owned firms

Chapter 3 M&A Market Problems in China

3.1 M&A Comparison between EU and China
3.2 High administrative intervention in China
3.3 Sluggish Legal Environment
3.4. Service of Intermediary Institutions is Insufficient

Chapter 4 Recommendations for China M&A Market

4.1. Diminishing Governmental Influences by Introducing "Fund Management System "
4.2 Making M&A Laws Transparent and Clear
4.3 Breed and develop financial intermediary institutions

Conclusion