University of Macau

Faculty of Social Sciences and Humanities

Department of English

LITERATURE AND CREATIVITY IN MACAO HIGH SCHOOLS

Portfolio consisting of Dissertation, Creative Work and Pedagogy

Submitted by

Elisa LAI Kin Teng

M-A3-5518-1

Supervisor: Prof. Christopher Kelen

A thesis submitted in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of Master of Arts

in English Studies

at the University of Macau

June, 2007

Table of Contents

Abstract

Declaration

Acknowledgements

Table of Contents

PART I Dissertation 1

Introduction 2

Chapter One Literature Teaching and English Language Teaching 4

Chapter Two Current Literature Teaching in Macao High Schools 12

Chapter Three Rationale for Creative Literature Teaching in Macao Classrooms 23

Chapter Four Conclusion 33

PART II Creative Work 1

Introduction 2

Synopsis of the novel 3

The Ice-Cream Formula 5

PART III Pedagogy 1

Introduction 2

Wai? 5

Exercises for Wai? 90

Four stories to write 142

References 1

Appendices

Appendix A The list of schools interviewed i

Appendix B Survey of Current Practices of Literature Teaching in Macao High Schools – Telephone Interview questions iii

Appendix C Report on the survey v