UNIVERSITY OF MACAU
FACULTY OF SOCIAL SCIENCES AND HUMANITIES
MASTER IN EUROPEAN STUDIES

EU Eastern Enlargement: Impact on Domestic Institutional Change

—The Bulgarian Anti-corruption Policy Case

Student: Cai Shuang

ID Number: MA460173

Thesis is presented to the

Faculty of Social Sciences and Humanities

University of Macau

In partial fulfillment for granting the MES Degree

(In Area of International Politics)

Year 2008

Table of Content

Abstract i
Acknowledgements iii
Table of Content iv
List of Tables v
List of Figures vi
1 Introduction 1
1.1 Background 1
1.2 Research Objectives 3
1.3 Methodology 5
1.4 Structure of the Thesis 6
2 The EU Accession Process at Large 8
2.1. The Accession Negotiations 10
2.2. The Pre-Accession Strategy 13
2.3. Monitoring and Review Procedure 15
2.4. The Ratification Process and Accession 16
3 Theoretical Frameworks 17
3.1 Europeanization Concept 18
3.1.1 Making sense of Europeanization 20
3.1.2 The "Europeanization" of Eastern European Countries 22
3.2 The New Institutionalism Theory in Political Science 29
3.2.1 Linking Europeanization with a theoretical framework 32
3.2.2 The Three Types of New Institutionalism Theory 33
3.2.3 European Integration and Institutional Reform 48
4 The Fight against Corruption in Central and Eastern European Countries 54
4.1. World Anti-corruption Overview 54
4.2 The Acquis Communautaire under Chapter 24: Justice and Home Affairs 61
4.3 The Fight against Corruption in Central and Eastern European Countries 63
5 The Bulgaria's Responses to EU Conditionality in Anti-corruption Policy 71
5.1. Overview of Bulgaria's EU Accession 71
5.2. History of Corruption and Anti-Corruption in Bulgaria 75
5.3. The Four Degree of Change in Domestic Anti-corruption Measures 79
5.3.1 The Inertia Period - 1989–1996 81
5.3.2 The Absorption Period - 1996–2000 85
5.3.3 The Transformation Period - 2000–2007 89
5.3.4 The Retrenchment Period – 2007– 97
6 Conclusion 100
References 110
Appendix 118

List of Tables

Table 2.1 EU Accession Time Table of Central and Eastern European Countries 9
Table 3.1 Number of Members in the European Parliament for Each Member State 51
Table 3.2 Number of Votes in the Council for Each Member State 53
Table 4.1 Countries Most Affected by Bribery in 2007 59
Table 4.2 2007 Transparency International Corruption Perceptions (EU and other Western European Countries) Error! Bookmark not defined.
Table 5.1 Bulgaria's Macroeconomic Indicators 2003-2008 74

List of Figures

Figure 3.1 EU-15's Performance and Scenarios in the Pre-Accession Economic Programs . 43
Figure 4.1 Demands for Bribery, by Region 58
Figure 4.2 Comparing Bribery by Region: 2006 and 2007 60
Figure 4.3 Selected Services: Percentage of Respondents Who Pay a Bribe, by Region Error! Bookmark not defined.
Figure 5.1 Indexes of Involvement in Corruption and Corruption Pressure-Population (min=0, max=10) 90
Figure 5.2 Bulgaria Aggregate Indicator : Control of Corruption 1996-2006 91