

UNIVERSITY OF MACAU

MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

UM /ISCTE

NICHES : THE OPPORTUNITY OF THE MACAU ECONOMY
BEYOND 1999

Thesis presented to the Faculty of Business Administration,
University of Macau
for granting the Master Degree in Strategic Management
Student Name: Leona Kuan Sio In Student no.: M-94-6002-1

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgments

List of tables

CHAPTER I: INTRODUCTION

1.1	Reasons for Studying the Opportunities of the Macau Economy beyond 1999	1
1.2	Objective of Study	4
1.3	Organization of Study	5
1.4	Methodology of Study	5

CHAPTER II: LITERATURE SURVEY

2.1	The Concept of Entrepreneurial Role Throughout the History of Economy Thought	6
2.2	The Definition of Entrepreneurship and Entrepreneurs	9

CHAPTER III: A HISTORICAL REVIEW OF MACAU DEVELOPMENT AND ENVIRONMENTAL CHANGES

3.1	Stage acting as the First Trading Center between East and West in mid-16 century	11
3.2	Stage of the Fishing and Handicraft-type Industry development	15
3.3	Stage of Four Major Economic Pillars : Light-Industry, Tourism & Gambling, Commercial & Financial Services, and Construction & Property Industry	18

CHAPTER IV: OVERVIEW OF ENVIRONMENTAL ASPECTS IN MACAU DURING THE TRANSITIONAL PERIOD (1987-1999)

4.1	Preparation of Transferring the Administrative Rights	38
4.2	Infrastructure Development	41
4.3	“Sun Set” Industry	43
4.4	Tourism & Gambling	50
4.5	Commercial & Financial Services	66
4.6	Construction & Property Industry	68
4.7	Significance of Participation in International Organizations	70
4.8	Population Growth, Labor and Employment	72

CHAPTER V: EXTERNAL IMPACT ON MACAU'S ECONOMY

5.1	Open-Door Policy
	5.1.1 Special Economic Zones	75
	5.1.2 Zhuhai	76
5.2	Hong Kong	77
5.3	Portugal	78
5.4	Taiwan	79
5.5	General Preference Scheme (GSP)	80

CHAPTER VI: CONCLUSIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS 81

Appendices

1.	A Historical Review of Transformation of Macau Sovereignty	92
2.	McKinsey's Report --"Foreground of the Macau's Development in the Coming Ten Years"	95

Bibliography