Acknowledgements

I could not finish my thesis smoothly without the assistance of many people. First of all, I would like to express my sincerest gratitude to my supervisor, Professor Todd Sandel. He guided me throughout the research process with his knowledge, patience and encouragement.

Gratitude also goes to all of my friends from Macau, American, Portugal, Singapore, Korea, Spain, France, Canada, Italy, Brazil, Taiwan, Macau and China. Without their assistance, I could not find so many appealing and fascinating stories.

Special thanks goes to my roommate, Sophie Wong. She was the one always there to support me during my 18 months staying in Macau.

Abstract

In the “multinational hub” Macau, interracial couples are everywhere to be found. Although interracial dating is a common phenomenon, most of them are between western white men and Asian women. Few people really spend time to study about the topic and few studies of Macau interracial dating can be found.

To complete my master thesis, I have spent the past year observing and interviewing people who have interracial dating experience. Since I am a Chinese woman living in Asia, I hope I can stand on my position and decode the attraction between Chinese women and western men.
